FRANK FERRANTE'S
GROUCHO
The Live Stream Spectacular

THE PEDIGREE:

The wildly funny, irreverent humor of American icon Groucho Marx has been going strong for over 100 years. Cutting across all demographics, the great Groucho has kept us laughing on film, television and now the internet for generations. For 35 years New York Theatre World Award winner and London Olivier nominee, Frank Ferrante, has portrayed the comedian from New York to London to the Australian continent to PBS television with over 3,000 performances in 500 cities. Ferrante's 'Groucho' is a fast paced, riotous performance featuring classic stories, one-liners, some show business history, songs and, yes, even though streamed live...masterful improvisation.

THE PERSONAL TOUCH: CUSTOMIZED TO YOUR CITY

The performance takes place in 'Groucho's home' where he delivers comic and musical highlights from his show and something unique. Ferrante's 'Groucho' will tour you through his home sharing actual Groucho personal affects - Groucho's humor, scrapbooks, costumes, awards and more. And perhaps most exciting...the show will retain it's intimate, customized audience interaction. Groucho will acknowledge by name your theater or performing arts center, patrons, donors, local establishments and, of course, nearby towns will get a ribbing.

MUSICAL EXPERTISE: BROADWAY

'Ferrante's Groucho' is accompanied on piano by Broadway's Gerald Sternbach who played for Mel Brooks in his one-man HBO performance and Carrie Fisher in her show "Wishful Drinking."

EXPERTLY FILMED: AWARD WINNING

And what sets this streaming show apart from others is the film direction itself. Each performance is filmed live by 'Groucho' director Drea Weber fluidly following Groucho's unpredictable physicality. Weber is a seasoned independent film maker and the recipient of 48 U.S. and international film festival awards.
