

Alan Safier stars in Say Goodnight Gracie, the hit Broadway play by Rupert Holmes that invites you to spend a hilarious, heart-warming evening in the uplifting company of the world's favorite and funniest centenarian. George Burns, who spanned over 90 years of American entertainment history, is now alive and kicking – and singing and dancing! – in a stunning tour de force solo performance for Alan Safier. With vintage photographs and video clips from film and television performances, Say Goodnight Gracie brings to life Burns's fascinating story. Gracie is Broadway's third-longest-running solo performance show, and was nominated for a Tony and won the National Broadway Theatre Award for Best Play.

In Say Goodnight Gracie, George Burns looks back upon his impoverished, plucky youth on New York's lower east side, his disastrous but tenacious early years in vaudeville, the momentous day when he met a fabulously talented young girl named Grace Ethel Cecile Rosalie Allen, their instant chemistry (with his flawless timing a perfect match for her dizzy persona), his wooing of her, and their rise to the pinnacles of vaudeville, film, radio and television. Gracie's untimely death forced George to start from Square One in life as well as in his career. Eventually, he achieved equal success as a solo raconteur and Academy Award-winning actor, portraying everything from a Sunshine Boy to God!

"Our audiences loved it. We sold out three straight shows and easily could have presented more. A well-delivered, well-executed piece of theatre."

—TIINA MITTLER, CURTIS THEATRE, BREA, CALIF.

"Some shows stand out as extraordinary. Say Goodnight Gracie is definitely one of those. ALAN SAFIER's portrayal of George Burns is nothing short of stupendous. This is a show that I can absolutely recommend to other presenters."

—TOMMY HENSEL, DOROTHY MENKER THEATRE, CHICAGO

"Our audience was transported to a different time and place! I felt like I knew both George and Gracie personally."

—LENNY BART, QUINCY (ILL.) COMMUNITY THEATRE

Contact: THE BRAD SIMON ORGANIZATION, INC.

212 730 2132 • brad@bsoinc.com • www.alansafier.com/sgg